Based on the status report from plaintiff's counsel dated December 5, 2005, the ~~_____~~ court concludes that the issues in this federal lawsuit may never need further court proceedings.

Final judgment or settlement in the related Westchester (New York) Supreme Court action may resolve this federal case and, in any event, may not be completed in the near future.

The court now dismisses this lawsuit administratively, without prejudice to any party seeking and obtaining reinstatement should the New York State Court lawsuit not resolve related issues in this case.
